BEER

Your breakfast caught on fire
You let it get too hot
Bread and butter you can make
A gourmet chef you're not

You polished your furniture
But you used gasoline
It took away the finish
and everything between

The corner's full of beer cans
The bath tub's filled up too
You've got to rent a dump truck to have them all removed

The car broke down this morning
you let it set right there
Now you have to pay a ticket
plus a towing fare

You decide to do dishes
you wash, scrub, and scrape
Getting through that grease and grime
is a task you just can't take

Oh, yes the fun of college life
so full of laughs and sorrow
Laugh about today, then cry
'cause it starts again tomorrow

Dear Mom and Dad,

Hi, how's it going? I hope as good as things are going for me. Everything is just fine. You should see my room. I couldn't have asked for a better place to live. It has a single bed, a large dresser, and a desk. Having my own room really has its advantages, such as it's easier to keep clean.

Doing my own cooking isn't so bad. There are five girls in the place I live and we do our own cooking and cleaning up. It keeps the kitchen clean, since we are responsible for our own mess.

The car is running just fine. It gets me around without any problems.

My classes are going pretty well. I had two tests yesterday. My government test, I think I did OK on, but my computer science test, well, I'll just hope for the best on that one. I had a test on Monday in another class . . . and another one on Monday.

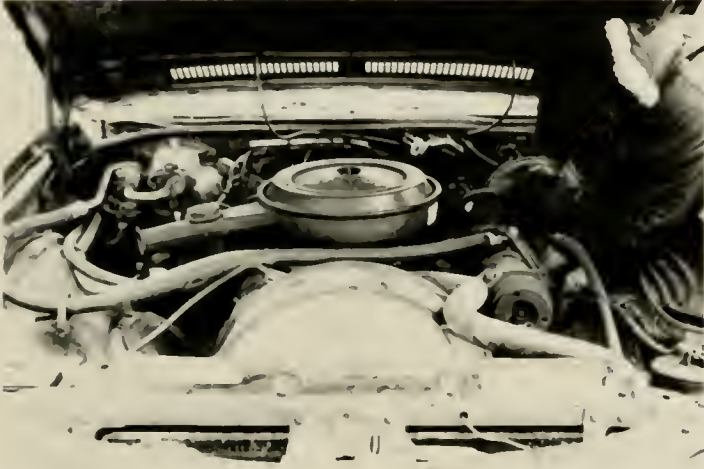

You've probably heard about parties on college campuses. But, don't worry, I don't have time to go to any of them. I barely have enough time for what I have to do, let alone what I want to do.

So how is everyone? Did Bill get accepted to college yet? I hope he makes it. How's Betsy . . . and Michael? Tell everyone I said hi and I'll write as soon as possible. And, tell Chris I'll call her this weekend.

Well, I have to go now. I have to study for my tests and get an oral report ready for Thursday, so I better get busy. I'll probably be home next weekend. Bye for now.

Love,
Jean

P.S. Could you send me money for gas? I would hate to get stuck in the middle of nowhere on the way home. Thanks.

Crash of Thunder

My Mind Began To Wonder
As The Leaves Turn And Fall
My Heart Is Growing Fonder
As Autumn Seems To Call.

All The Roars Of Victory,
The Bounds Of Defeat
Becoming A Part Of History
As We Resign Our Seat.

The Memories Of The Team's Laughter
At Yesterday's Football Game
When You Ran The Other Way
And Swore You'd Never Be The Same.

The Thunder Began To Crash
We Try To Remain
And The Sweet Day Of Autumn
Turns Into Rain!

EDDIE MONEY

By Marsha Roux

Energy And Enthusiasm Are Among The Many Artistic Qualities Possessed By Eddie Money, Rock-N-Roll Star Who Appeared In Concert At The College During The Fall Semester. Money Described His Own Act This Way, "It's Dynamic, The Best Band We Put Together."

Money Was Born In Little Island, California And Moved To New York At A Young Age. His Real Name Is Edward Mahoney. "I've Been Singing In Bands Since High School And Always Had An Interest In Music Since I Was 11 Years Old," Money Said.

But After Graduation, Money Decided To Continue A Family Tradition By Becoming A Police Officer. "I Wanted To Please My Father, Because He Was A Cop," He Said. But When His Try At Tradition Didn't Work Out, ("It's Dangerous And Hard Work") Money Geared His Driving Ambition Toward The Rock-N-Roll Scene.

When Asked If His Father Is Pleased With His Success, Money Replied With A Disarming Smile, "Yeah, I Guess So; I'm Making Money And Not Calling Collect Anymore."

Future Goals For Money Include Striving For Perfection In His Music And Returning To Little Island In June To Get Married. He Would Not Reveal The Name Of His Bride-To-Be.

The Gentle Man Who Discussed His Family And Personal Life Off-Stage, However, Became A Much Different Man On-Stage. He Was Aggressive, Defensive, But Effective. He Brought The Crowd To Its Feet, Echoing His Lyrics.

On-Stage, He Appeared In Blue Jeans, A San Francisco Giants' T-Shirt And Sneakers. His Bright Make-Up Glistened In The Stage Lights. Off-Stage, He Was Gentle, Considerate And Insightful. He Wore Dress Clothes And There Was No Trace Of Make-Up. Who Is The Real Eddie Money?

“No Control”, Money’s Fourth And Most Recent Album, Has Given The Entertainer A “Comeback” Of Sorts After A Two-Year Break In His Popularity. Still, Money Does Not Consider Himself To Be At The Peak Of His Performance Or Of His Writing. “If You’re Really Interested In Something, There Is No Peak Because You Keep Finding More To Develop Within Your Talent.”

Included In The W.A.C.C. Performance Were Two Of His Biggest Hits “Baby Hold On” And “Two Tickets To Paradise”. The Crowd Loudly Chanted For “One More Song” And Refused To Let Go. After Playing A Request From The Audience, He Left Stage And Returned To His Awaiting Bus. Individuals Rocked The Bus Annoying, But Not Surprising, The Performer, Who Said He Expected The Reaction.

“I Like Playing At College Campuses And W.A.C.C. Was One Of The Best Audiences We’ve Had,” He Said Matter-Of-Factly. He Added, “Seriously, It Was A Lot Of Fun.”

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear Graduates,

The desire to achieve has, throughout history, driven men and women to great successes.

No doubt this same desire prompted your decision to enter College and has also led you to this most important milestone in your life.

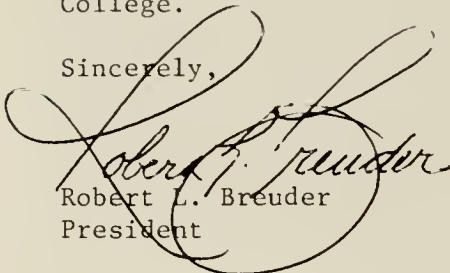

You are now living the fulfillment of one of life's most significant goals - the earning of a college degree. You will find the knowledge and skills you have gained here at The Williamsport Area Community College will be the key which unlocks many doors in your future.

Many believe dreamers and realists are very opposite types of people. However, we have come to believe that to be a successful realist, one must first be a dreamer. Without a dream and desire, what chance do we have for success?

You now have the means to turn your life dreams into reality. We are confident in your ability to make dreams come true and to make success a real part of your life.

Best wishes from all of us at The Williamsport Area Community College.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Breuder
President

NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND

By Ray Owlett

The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band came to W.A.C.C.'s Bardo Gym on November 22, 1982, to "Make A Little Magic".

And, so they did. The spectacular show was seen by over 400, most of whom were over 25. The general student population did not come out for the show, and their absence was indeed their loss.

The enthusiastic crowd clapped, screamed and stomped to the sounds of such popular songs as "An American Dream", Rocky Top Tennessee" and of course, "Make a Little Magic".

The Dirt Band, according to the group's banjo player, John McEuen, is the only American band to tour Russia. The group also consists of Jimmie Fadden, Bob Carpenter and Jimmy Ibbotrom.

The Dirt Band is a long-lived musical group and with any luck, we will enjoy their unique sound for years to come.

ECHOES

The happiest tear
To the loneliest cry
My mind running with fear
Can I say good-bye?

Special times we shared
Through struggle and love
To our dreams we dared
To climb above.

We have grown to respect
The needs of others
The friends we select
We praise them as brothers.

The echoes of laughter
The raving sound of sorrow
Years going faster
We will remember -
tomorrow.

SEA OF LIGHT

Early morning riser
Chaser of a golden dream
Teacher of the horizon
So, tomorrow we can be enlightened.

By the wisdom betraided in thee
Challenges of the future
You say the future can be me
But how can this be true?

Still learning the basic rules
To do the things we said we could
Having the doors opened by you
And becoming the foils of brotherhood.

Suddenly, we travel from darkness
To the sea of light
But with sadness
Because tomorrow we must say "Good-bye".
